MIKE ARMS

Dear Friend of the Animals,

Thank you so much for your continued support of Helen Woodward Animal Center. Just when I think things couldn't get any more exciting around here we have embarked on a new partnership with Battersea Dogs & Cats Home in the UK to provide our very first cross-cultural Business of Saving Lives conference here in San Diego.

After my recent trip to Poland, it became very apparent that there was a bigger need than we even realized to bring our "best practices" for animal welfare to organizations around the world. During and after the conference we were bombarded with emails and requests from Estonia, Romania, Africa, Bulgaria, and Japan to bring our program to where it is needed the most. We met with the Battersea team during the conference and as they are doing similar work it seemed like the perfect marriage of our two programs to benefit animal welfare personnel on both continents.

The issues that affect organizations around the globe are different but still have many commonalities. The need to successfully share your message with those that can help and motivate the public to get involved by adopting or fostering homeless pets are paramount. Most importantly we must always work to protect the value of these precious lives by never giving them away without proper screening or support. You can read more about this exciting conference on page 12.

If you have driven by in the past year you know the new building is going up fast. We are excited to say we should be in our new home in May of 2019. Our Adoptions staff has worked tirelessly to never "miss a beat" during this transition phase that required a lot of extra time, work and energy on the part of every team member. In the end we did over 2,700 adoptions in 2018 – an astounding number with the limited amount of space and medical area we had at our disposal. The sky's the limit as we go into 2019 with an incredible new adoption center with double the exam and surgery space and indoor/outdoor kennels. We are so thankful for all our friends who made this project possible with their generosity and kindness. It is truly overwhelming to think of everyone who gave to bring this to fruition. We are especially honored by Helen's family and their dedication to this new building for the Center.

As we move into the coming year we are working hard to care for the pets of the homeless throughout San Diego, ensuring that they have vaccinations and have been spayed or neutered, as well as ensuring they have the proper nutrition to stay healthy and happy through our Pets Without Walls program. We are looking to expand the program in the months ahead and add new partners to best serve our community.

Your Center will never rest when there are lives to save and education to share, but we couldn't do it without you.

For a more humane world,

Michael M. Arms
President and CEO

October 30, 2018, the walls and interior framing of the new building have been completed.

Goin' with THE Flo

ANIMAL PLANET'S PUPPY BOWL INTRODUCES THE NATION TO A VERY SPECIAL HELEN WOODWARD ANIMAL CENTER DOG ...

A young “ruff-and-tumble” athlete and Helen Woodward Animal Center alumna shined in the national spotlight on Super Bowl Sunday competing in Animal Planet’s Puppy Bowl XV.

At just weeks old, Flo came to Helen Woodward Animal Center in August 2018 after being mysteriously separated from her mother. She and her siblings needed round-the-clock care, but at just over 2 pounds and the smallest of the bunch, Flo showed a remarkable fighting spirit.

“We received a call from Animal Planet asking if we might have a special pup who could show the world the beauty of rescue pets by playing in the Puppy Bowl and Flo immediately came to mind,” stated Adoption Services Manager, Ashley Freeman.

Flo traveled to New York in October for filming with 93 other adoptable puppies from 51 shelters and rescues across the country. Not only did Flo excel on “Team Ruff,” she shone in her love of her teammates, her thrill of the game, and her genuine enthusiasm. Her sparkle secured her a place in the starting lineup and a Pup-Close-and-Personal interview, detailing her life as a SoCal girl!

On Super Bowl Sunday, millions tuned in to watch the impressive athleticism of those on the gridiron, both humans and puppies. Flo demonstrated her spirit for the game and was even called on unnecessary “ruff-ness”, while San Diego TV and print media showed off the local star.

Now, Flo is looking ahead to a new spotlight and beginning training for a possible future in the Center’s Pet Encounter Therapy program. While still too young to officially enter the world of pet therapy, her new “mom” Yvonne sees more star potential in Flo in her ability to love everyone she meets. Once Flo is one and a half years old, she’ll be ready to test into the program.

Watch Flo on the gridiron at www.animalcenter.org/press-page. For more information on Helen Woodward Animal Center’s Pet Encounter Therapy Program please visit animalcenter.org/pet.

Calendar Contest Winner

CONGRATULATIONS JESSIE, HELEN WOODWARD ANIMAL CENTER'S 2019 MY PET ROCKS CALENDAR CONTEST WINNER!

Jessie’s parents, Megan and Gerry, first saw this gorgeous girl on the Center’s website in 2009. They immediately raced to meet her and it was love at first sight. Coincidentally, it was also Valentine’s

Day—the perfect day to adopt such an affectionate pup! After 10 joyful years together, Jessie still loyally follows her parents around the house and patiently waits for them to come home each night. She loves watching lizards, going on walks, and running around her yard at top speed. Jessie’s favorite part of the day is always family time. 🐾

Visions OF 'Sugar Poms'

A group of fluffy sugar poms (A Pomeranian and her puppies), who sought room at the Helen Woodward "Inn" ahead of the Holidays, caused a flurry of excitement and even some overnight guests at the Center on the eve of their adoption day.

Helen Woodward Animal Center received a call about Sugar, a mother Pomeranian who had been hit by a car and suffered leg injuries. She and her puppies were in great need! Center staff and foster volunteers quickly stepped up.

Sugar 'Mom' and Babies arrived at the Center just shy of Christmas Eve.

"Not all shelters can take in a litter of puppies," said Center Pet Intake Manager LaBeth Thompson, "especially when the mother is in need of medical care. It takes a lot more resources from our medical team and our foster network as the puppies grow, and the mother heals, and so many shelters struggle with space. We are incredibly fortunate to have a strong group of foster volunteers who are actual lifesavers in situations like this."

Once her babies were puffy and weaned and Sugar was on a steady path to complete recovery, the Center announced through social media that the beloved sugar poms would begin their search for forever homes in early January.

Dedicated adopters heard the call loud and clear and created a camp-out outside the Center's adoption village at 6 p.m. the evening before the poms would become available for adoption! A committed group of rescue-pup lovers braved the near freezing overnight temperatures for a chance to welcome one of these adorable pups into their family come morning. Within just minutes of the adoption center opening, the sugar poms had all officially found their forever homes. Mom, Sugar went home soon after, once receiving her clean bill of health. 🐾

Puppies Floof, Fleece, Fluff, Poof, and Puff had a warm place to rest on Christmas Eve.

WHERE are they now?

CHAMPION Adopted January 3

Rescued from a hoarder home and still a puppy, Champion arrived at the Center with a severe leg injury. With his fighting spirit, he underwent surgery to remove his leg and thrived through rehabilitation before finding his forever home with the Cariss family of Escondido.

"We are loving our new pup! Our children adore him and wake up every morning excited to play with our puppy. Champion loves running around and exploring our yard. He is the biggest cuddler and enjoys snuggling. He is the perfect addition to our family!

We are so thankful that Helen Woodward Animal Center took such good care of him!" — Melissa Cariss.

GABBY Adopted December 20

A Center staff favorite and longtime resident Gabby searched for her forever home since 2016. In December, her holiday wishes came true and she went home with a wonderful furever dad, Anthony. Her new name is Sadie.

"I'm happy to report Sadie is doing well. [She is] playing with toys and rolling over for belly rubs and she is always very friendly to anyone who comes to visit. Thanks to all staff members for a great job." — Anthony

HELEN WOODWARD ANIMAL CENTER'S COMPANION ANIMAL HOSPITAL DR. ANGELA GAETO ANSWERS FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS ABOUT PET ALLERGIES.

What are the different types of allergies?

Dr. Gaeto: "The most common types of allergies fit into two broad categories; food allergies and environmental allergies. Many patients experience some level of allergies from both categories, but not always. Environmental allergies cover things from plant and tree pollens to dander from other animals and people. Environmental allergies cover a very common allergy for pets, flea allergies. Dogs and cats with flea allergies can have serious itching reactions. The effects of one bite can linger for days causing a cascade of itching and potentially self-inflicted wounds from excessive scratching."

How do these allergies show up?

Dr. Gaeto: "Allergies can have a wide variety of symptoms in pets depending on the severity of the allergy, type of allergy and the pet's reaction to it. Minor symptoms include swollen or red eyes, mild, clear eye or nose discharge, or mild scratching. More severe symptoms include scratching at a specific area until it becomes red, oozy and irritated. The colloquial term for these is "hot spots". The most common symptom for allergies is itching. Due to the compromise of the skin barrier from allergies many animals develop secondary bacterial or yeast infections that must be treated along with the allergies to ensure relief for your pet."

How are these allergies treated?

Dr. Gaeto: "Treatment for allergic dogs and cats depends on what types of allergies affect them and to what degree. Pets with minor symptoms may do well with only antihistamines; drugs like Benadryl, Zyrtec, and Claritin. There are also prescription antihistamines designed for pets. Other treatments include mild soothing shampoos with Aloe or Oatmeal. Pets that have developed "hot spots" will need to be treated for any infections that they have. A big part of that treatment also involves preventing them from scratching at the area like with a cone. However, if you see your pet developing this issue and don't have a cone on hand you can always cover it with a t-shirt to prevent licking and scratching. Pets with more severe allergies may need treatments such as targeted immunotherapy with allergy injections. Other options include long term medications to reduce allergy symptoms." 🐾

A Unique Cat WITH A Special Gift

THERAPY CAT DAN, PROVIDES LOVE AND JOY TO THE HUNDREDS OF SENIORS HE VISITS

Despite a rough start, a unique feline, pulled from the streets of Tijuana, is offering a special gift to our Pet Encounter Therapy clients.

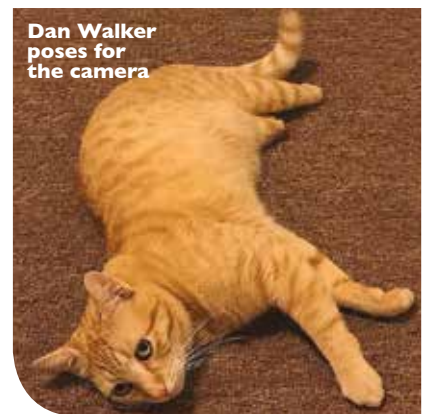

Dan Walker, a 3.5 year old cat, is one of Helen Woodward Animal Center's newest Pet Encounter Therapy (PET) animals. PET brings the unconditional love and tactile benefits of animals to people in skilled nursing facilities, children's shelters, hospitals, psychiatric units and many more.

Studies show holding and caressing an animal provides relaxation, lower blood pressure, improved memory, and sensory stimuli.

Dogs are naturals for the work but cats tend to be more skittish about meeting new people and, thus, are rare within the program. Dan, however, is not only an incredible therapy cat, he is the Center's only PET cat with special needs — he's missing his two back paws.

Dan was sick and in dire need when he was rescued off the streets of Tijuana as a young cat. He was missing his back feet and had painful open wounds on his legs. His condition shocked rescue volunteers who believed was he the victim of a terrible accident or had endured the trauma of having his feet removed.

After a transfer to San Diego, Dan immediately started rehabilitation. X-rays revealed that he was likely born missing his back paws and the open wounds were possibly a result of him dragging his legs to get around.

His foster-turned-permanent "mom", Stacey Agan immediately saw in Dan a love for people and had him tested into the Center's PET program. He passed with flying colors!

IN THE LAST 25 YEARS, THERE HAVE ONLY BEEN SIX (CATS) WHO HAVE MET THE HIGH STANDARDS OF THE PET ENCOUNTER THERAPY PROGRAM

"He's truly amazing because it's so rare to find a cat that can do therapy work," explained Robin Cohen, PET Manager.

Right now, Dan is one of just two cats in the PET program. In the last 25 years, there have only been six who have met the high standards.

"Dan just loves to interact with the seniors he visits and loves to be petted," Cohen said. "What's so beautiful is that Dan proves that just because you have a special need or an injury, you still have so much love to offer. He shows us that being different doesn't mean that you're less deserving of a beautiful life."

PET provided approximately 25,000 animal interactions last year. Watch Dan in action at www.animalcenter.org/press-page. 🐾

Lizzy's Cinderella Story

HELEN WOODWARD THERAPEUTIC RIDING CLIENT GALLOPS TO FAIRYTALE FINALE!

Each year, Helen Woodward Animal Center's Therapeutic Riding Program shows off the skills of its riders in an annual Center Riding Show. This November, a special student named Elizabeth "Lizzy" Simas took those skills to a national competition and her quest to win came with a real-life fairytale ending.

Lizzy was born with a hip disorder in which a disruption of blood flow to the femur causes the bone to die and stop growing. At just four years old, Lizzy underwent multiple surgeries but more struggles were ahead. She was diagnosed with a seizure disorder which, along with a childhood stroke, led to speech delays, short term memory loss, motor planning difficulties, and developmental delays.

Despite her medical history, Lizzy was a young woman full of life. When she turned 20, her parents sought out the Center's Therapeutic Riding program to assist with her unique challenges and fuel her passion.

Established in 1983, the Center's Therapeutic Riding program was developed to assist children and adults with special needs. Students ride specially-trained horses with certified instructors to increase balance and muscle control, improve concentration and short-term memory, and enhance their confidence and self-esteem.

Lizzy excelled in her riding classes and in July qualified to compete in the United Professional Horseman's Association (UPHA) National Championships in Kansas City — a huge honor.

Participation in the competition meant Lizzy would need show clothes, boots and riding helmet. Efforts were made to find Lizzy the appropriate attire within a conservative budget but the affordable boots were not fitting well and it seemed that she would need to borrow a helmet.

In true Cinderella fashion, shortly before Lizzy's departure, the Center's Therapeutic Riding team held a tack sale. Within a bag of horse supplies, donated by Evergate Stables, there was a beautiful new riding helmet and a pair of gorgeous Italian riding boots. As all good fairytales go, the helmet fit perfectly and the boots zipped up like they were custom made for Lizzy.

On November 4th, Lizzy and Therapeutic Riding Manager, Courtney Mellor, flew to Kansas City. Lizzy soared in phase one of the competition — placing in the top 10 and going on to be named the top 5th rider in the Nation and awarded a $500 scholarship toward her program riding fees.

"We are so proud of Lizzy," stated Mellor. "She is a determined athlete with an incredible drive. And we are so grateful to Jenn Gates and Evergate Stables for decking her out in gorgeous attire worthy of her win." 🐾

Two pups in for check up.

Puppies Winni and Wanda show off their cute mugs for our cameras.

IN EARLY OCTOBER, Helen Woodward Animal Center received a call from a rescue partner in Palm Springs. A litter of 10 puppies, — whose mother had just been hit by a car and killed— was in desperate trouble. The frail newborns would need weeks of round-the-clock care and limited space, budget, and staffing at local rescues provided few options. Helen Woodward Animal Center was ready to help.

The Center transport team quickly made the trip to Palm Springs, where one of the puppies had already lost the fight. Meanwhile, Center foster staff went to work calling devoted foster volunteers for temporary homes and caretakers to take in the delicate babies.

THE PUPPIES WOULD NEED TO BE BOTTLE FED EVERY TWO HOURS IF THEY HAD ANY CHANCE OF SURVIVING WITHOUT THEIR MOTHER.

The remaining nine tiny puppies (four boys and five girls – each small enough to hold in one hand), were brought back to the Center for medical checks, and then taken to the homes of four caring fosters. With daily care and nurturing, the puppies made major strides, and a surprisingly large number of friends and fans.

Nicknamed “the W Puppies,” Warner, Walter, Wilson, Wilshire, Wanda, Whisper, Wine, Winni and Winter had social media buzzing.

“We were getting an incredible number of calls for these puppies,” stated Helen Woodward Animal Center Customer Service Asst. Manager Dora Dahlke.

"We hadn't seen an excitement like this in a long time. I think that our followers had been watching them grow up and rooting them on since things looked really dire. It's definitely a celebration for us all."

To highlight that celebration, the beloved W Puppies were reunited on Thanksgiving Day at the Del Mar Race Track for the annual Family Mile Fun Run and had the opportunity to put their athletic skills to the test participating in the puppy run, facing off against each other.

Their incredible cuteness and story attracted news media and even more public interest.

The following day, on Black Friday, the W Puppies began their search for forever homes. By the middle of the weekend, all of the pups had found their new families.

This incredible success story was made possible because of the dedicated donors who are devoted to helping the most vulnerable orphan pets find health and happiness. We extend a sincere, THANK YOU.

United in Saving Lives

A PARTNERSHIP TO SPREAD THE GIFT OF ANIMAL WELFARE EDUCATION

An exciting opportunity and new partnership for Helen Woodward Animal Center to share life-saving knowledge with animal professionals all over the country is coming this June with a new, innovative three-day conference in San Diego.

The idea arose during a recent trip to Poland. Center President & CEO Mike Arms and VP of Development Renee Resko traveled to Krakow for the International Companion Animal Welfare Conference hosted by Dogs Trust where Arms was an invited speaker.

There they were introduced to leadership from Battersea Dogs & Cats Home, a world-class animal refuge in the United Kingdom. Established in 1860, the organization cares for more than 7,000 animals in need yearly in the UK and shares in the Center's passion for making the world a better place for animals through education with their Battersea Academy.

"We are so excited to start a partnership with Battersea and together share the best ideas, procedures and innovations in animal welfare," Arms said.

Helen Woodward Animal Center has held The Business of Saving Lives workshops since 2002, taking a Center leadership team around the country and world to teach animal shelter professionals how to run their organization like a business in order to save more lives.

The Business of Saving Lives workshops are also held twice a year at the Center with attendees traveling to San Diego from around the nation and globally. These workshops are completely free to the organizations.

In its 17 year history of the workshops, the Center's team has presented to 2,200 people covering topics from board development, fundraising, public relations, social media and the Center's unique programs.

In June, a leadership team from Battersea will travel to San Diego to co-host a new conference, United in Saving Lives. The mission: to educate more animal welfare professionals and make a difference for orphan pets.

"This new union with Battersea truly exemplifies what the Business of Saving Lives program is all about," Arms explained. "Together, we are strengthening our curriculum to make an even bigger impact. It gives me so much hope for the progress animal welfare will continue to make in the years to come."

United in Saving Lives will begin with a pre-conference reception on June 18, 2019, held at the Center. Attendees will take a Center tour and learn about the 13 unique programs housed on the property. Next, they'll receive a special welcome from Arms and Center staff and the opportunity to network during the catered reception.

This three day conference—from June 19th through the 21st—will be held off-site, unlike the Business of Saving Lives workshops in order to accommodate more attendees for this unique learning opportunity. Expert presenters from Helen Woodward Animal Center and Battersea will cover topics including: volunteer

United in Saving Lives is an opportunity to inspire and educate professionals, volunteers, students and supporters in the world of animal welfare and create a lasting impact for orphan pets in need.

17TH ANNUAL HOPE TELETHON RAISED MORE THAN $970,000 FOR ORPHAN PETS AND PROGRAMS AT HELEN WOODWARD ANIMAL CENTER.

This year, the holiday spirit filled the KPBS San Diego studios just over a week before Christmas. KUSI's Dave Scott, Elizabeth Alvarez, Dani Ruberti and Allie Wagner and Sunny 98.1's Dave Mason, along with the Center's public relations team hosted the four-hour live broadcast.

It featured heartfelt animal stories and interviews, Center program updates, donor check presentations and adoptable pets, while volunteers answered calls from viewers inspired to give to orphan pets in need.

The Telethon was also an opportunity to celebrate a huge accomplishment for a global Center-initiated campaign. In December, the Blue Buffalo Home 4 the Holidays campaign accomplished 16 million adoptions since it launched in 1999.

Helen Woodward Animal Center is immensely thankful to all the individuals and businesses inspired to give to the Center to support the work we do to make the world a more humane place for animals.

"The HOPE Telethon is such a special way to come together and highlight all the wonderful programs and ways the Center makes an impact in our community and around the world," explained Center PR & Communications Director, Jessica Gercke. "It's because of people who believe in our mission of people helping animals and animals helping people, that we're able to continue doing the work we do." 🐾

Thank You

TO ALL OF OUR GENEROUS DONORS WHO JOINED OR RENEWED THEIR MEMBERSHIP IN ONE OF OUR GIVING CLUBS, PARTICIPATED IN SPECIAL EVENTS, OR PROVIDED IN-KIND SUPPORT BETWEEN JANUARY 1, 2018 AND DECEMBER 31, 2018.

It has been a challenging year for Helen Woodward Animal Center with the construction of the new Adoptions building and the use of temporary facilities for housing and medical care for our orphan pets. Even with these difficult circumstances, the Center was able to place over 2,700 animals in 2018. It is a tribute to the staff's dedication that this was possible with such limited space and logistical challenges. Since Home 4 the Holidays began in 1999, we have helped find homes for over 16 million orphan pets, and since Remember Me Thursday began we have made over 1 billion impressions on social media worldwide to honor those pets who lost their lives too early.

The Center's Humane Education program taught respect and compassion for animals to over 16,000 children through educational programming this year, including providing hands-on interactions with animals to classrooms at low income schools. Pet Encounter Therapy and Therapeutic Riding initiated over 25,000 therapeutic interactions to the children and adults who benefitted from the animals, and AniMeals supplied over 90,000 pounds of pet food to the pets of the homeless throughout San Diego County, homebound seniors, and military veterans. The Center's mobile veterinary unit provided hundreds of spay/neuter procedures and vaccines to the pets of those struggling with life on the streets and ensured their health and happiness with their best friend. Club Pet Boarding, the Companion Animal Hospital, and Orphaned Objects Resale Shop also had a successful year, but none of this would be possible without your support. Thank you for changing the lives of so many people and pets in 2018. We look forward to our best year to date in 2019. 🐾

HOW YOU CAN HELP

There are so many things you can do to help animals and people in need in our community.

DONATE TODAY! Contact 858-756-4117 x358, or AnneE@animalcenter.org

MEMORIAL GIFTS

The Center has always been a place where people can memorialize the pets of their friends and family with special gifts of support to help the orphan pets in their honor. One of the most visible programs we have had is the Tree of Life. Due to the new construction we have moved the Adoptions Tree to Club Pet. There will be three Trees over there, but the Trees are going to be quite full with leaves so we have decided to discontinue the program. All the current leaves will find a home on one of the trees.

In lieu of the Tree of Life, we have a beautiful program called "I Remember You" to memorialize pets on-line, by "lighting a candle" and sharing a story and photo. If you have any questions please call The Center, x350 or visit the site to light a candle.

MONETARY DONATIONS

Helen Woodward Animal Center relies heavily on private donations to fund our programs.

BECOME A 'PAW PAL'

Monthly donors support our work throughout the year with recurring monthly gifts. Join "Paw Pals" and receive a commemorative pin to show your support.

IN-KIND DONATIONS

To help reduce costs, our programs are always in need of items to support their activities. Visit animalcenter.org for our current wish list of specific needs.

ALTERNATIVE GIFT CARDS

Give the gift that saves lives! A gift to help the animals is a great way to celebrate a birthday, graduation, or the upcoming holidays. We will send a personalized card notifying the recipient of your gift.

VEHICLE DONATIONS

Take the hassle out of selling your old car, truck, motorcycle, or other vehicle — donate it to Helen Woodward Animal Center! Our simple, hassle-free program will take care of all the paperwork, pick up your vehicle, and send you the documents needed for a tax deduction, while providing valuable funds to help the animals!

PLANNED GIFTS AND PET BEQUESTS

Including Helen Woodward Animal Center in your will or trust will create a lasting legacy to help pets and people in need for years to come. Make provisions to ensure your pets will be cared for in the event of your passing.

Contact Renee Resko: 858-756-4117 x347 or email ReneeR@animalcenter.org

Contact Marilyn Martinez: 858-756-4117 x312 or email MarilynM@animalcenter.org

VOLUNTEER

Our work depends entirely on the support of our dedicated volunteers. Many opportunities are available for youth, adults, and groups in our various programs and events.

Contact Megan McCarty: 858-756-4117 x305 or email MeganM@animalcenter.org

BECOME A FOSTER PARENT

Some pets just need time in a loving, comfortable home before they are ready for adoption. We are in great need of more volunteers willing to open their homes to these orphan pets.

Contact Morgan Hamm: 858-756-4117 x375 or email Fosters@animalcenter.org

April Christine Woods was a dedicated animal lover with 4 Pomeranians, 2 cats, and multiple degrees that she utilized to teach and counsel at Palomar College. She was only 51 years old when she passed away from cancer, but we are so grateful that she generously left a bequest to Helen Woodward Animal Center to continue her legacy of love for animals in need. If you would like to get more information on leaving your legacy, fill out the form and we would love to connect with you.

ONCE IN A LIFETIME NAMING OPPORTUNITIES

In order to ensure that the plaques and pavers that are currently “on order” for Helen Woodward Animal Center’s new Adoption building will be in place for our grand opening in May, we will need to receive all orders by March 15, 2019. We will be creating a second wave of plaques and pavers once the building is open, so if you miss this window of opportunity there will be another chance.

These opportunities allow you to make a gift in memory or in honor of a beloved pet or family member, and give you a chance to leave your legacy.

Visit animalcenter.org/future TODAY to customize your gift for the new building and help us give the animals the new facility that they deserve!
