CREATING A HUMANE WORLD FOR ANIMALS AND PEOPLE

Helen Woodward Animal Center is a unique, private, non-profit organization dedicated to saving the lives of animals and enriching the lives of people. For more than 40 years, our no-kill Center has provided humane care and adoption for orphan animals, as well as animal-centered educational and therapeutic programs for people. The Center is a dynamic, evolving institution that is an agent of change for the animal welfare world. Not only are we operating innovative and beneficial programs for animals and people, but we are teaching others around the world how to successfully market and promote their programs to stop the senseless death of thousands of animals. 🐾

Don't miss a single issue...

Every issue of Helen Woodward Animal Center's The Companion newsletter is filled with stories about the relationship between humans and the animals that we love. Four times each year The Companion keeps you informed about how you are helping us fulfill our mission of "people helping animals and animals helping people."

SURRENDERED PETS will receive a complete veterinary examination for good health and temperament. A documented history is required for all owner-relinquished animals. Dogs under our care are exercised regularly and cats enjoy comfortable playrooms. Experienced staff screen potential adopters to help clarify needs and ensure a lifelong match. Once an adoption is complete, our staff is available for any assistance to make the transition a success.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Dear Friends,

I have been giving a lot of thought lately as to what Helen Woodward Animal Center stands for and what we represent, and I keep coming back to one simple idea: "The Business of Saving Lives". It's not just the name of our workshop; it's the name we use to explain what we are teaching, and to me, it is so much more. It is embracing a mission that includes reaching out to groups around the world with powerful tools that allow them to not only save lives, but do it without burning themselves out financially or emotionally. With our guidance in marketing, social media, fundraising and best practices overall in animal welfare, we can make changes that will literally save hundreds of thousands of lives.

But there's more! I would also like to look at how we can continue expanding our Humane Education program and its role in our mission here at Helen Woodward Animal Center. In light of key organizations, like the Humane Society of the United States, turning their focus away from humane education, we feel the need is greater than ever for us to provide extensive programming for children of all ages to instill compassion, empathy and a true appreciation for sharing the earth with our animal friends. As we continue to see violence becoming more and more prevalent in our society, what could be more important than children being taught the ways of kindness and respect for others through hands-on experiences with animals? There is truly no better teaching opportunity than the love and understanding that is shared between our animal ambassadors and the thousands of children we reach every year.

Of course, the Center never loses sight of our mission of saving more lives today than yesterday, and with your support, we are on track for another record-breaking year in Adoptions with more transfer partners than ever before. We are not only providing the tools that our shelter partners need for success around the world, but we are also a resource and a safe haven for them.

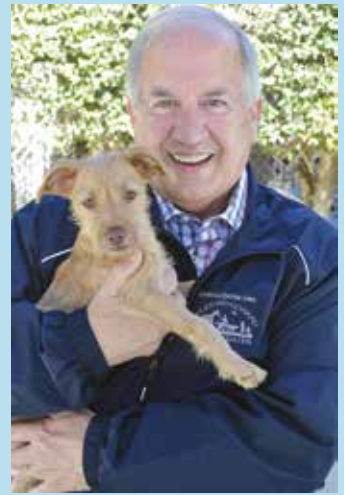

International adoption campaigns like Remember Me Thursday® and Home 4 the Holidays® continue to grow. We anticipate this year to be a turning point for a larger Latin American presence and participation with their integration of humane education and curriculum for schools, provided by our innovative friends in Puerto Rico. The possibilities for growth are endless and we are inspired and excited by the impact we are having around the globe.

Thank you for joining us in this exciting journey to truly become the "Animal Center of the Future." We couldn't do it without you.

For a more humane world,

Michael M. Arms
President and CEO

"...the need is greater than ever for us to provide programming that instills compassion, empathy and a true appreciation for sharing the earth with our animal friends."

A chain-bound husky Quinn gets a second chance at running free

FINALLY FREE

Huskies are known for being energetic, outgoing and intelligent. The worst place they can be is tied up on a chain. But, that's exactly how husky blend Quinn spent the first two years of her life.

Quinn lived with a family in the Los Angeles area. The home didn't have a fence, so they kept Quinn on a chain in the backyard. This lively girl yearned to run and play, but she could only go as far as her chain would allow. As she grew, the restrictive chain became tighter and tighter around her neck.

Eventually, the family gave Quinn away, and the blue-eyed pup ended up with one of our animal rescue partners. Our partner knew that Quinn needed medical care and a large space to exercise, so she contacted Helen Woodward Animal Center.

Quinn was in rough shape when she arrived at the Center. The chain had left a ring of scabs and bruises around her neck. Quinn was also covered in ticks, another hazard of living outdoors. Unfortunately, she caught a tick-borne illness, which meant her stay with us (and her search for a forever family) would take a little longer.

Because of your generous support, all Quinn's medical needs were met and she had plenty of time to heal at the Center until she was ready for adoption. This beautiful, treat-loving dog, with lots of energy, was immediately scooped up by the perfect active family and we know she will enjoy her new life as the ideal running or hiking partner!

Over 3,000 orphan pets like Quinn will receive medical attention at Helen Woodward Animal Center this year. Please make a gift today to help us provide them with life-saving vaccines, spay/neuter surgeries, and any other medical care that they need.

SPECIALTY CAMPS

You Can Be a Veterinarian Camp is a unique program that gives 9 – 16 year olds the chance to practice veterinary skills, interact with animals, and get experience with medical equipment. The education department first held this half-day camp in 2015 and now offers two versions!

Haylee Blake, our Education Manager, recently shared about the camp's success: "There's no other program out there quite like this camp. In fact, I'm rather jealous because we never had something like this when I was growing up! Not only is it a fun and unique experience for aspiring veterinarians, but it's extremely valuable because they learn applicable skills and information. I've actually learned a lot myself, like some basic stitching methods, which they get to practice on a banana!"

SOME ACTIVITIES CAMPERS EXPERIENCE:

- Practice fundamental CPR techniques on a canine training model and view a respiratory demonstration.
- Interact with a rabbit while learning about the parasitic organisms that can affect them, and view slides of parasites under a microscope.
- Perform an ultrasound on a canine patient with the help of Chief of Staff, Dr. Patricia Carter, who will share her education and career background.
- Learn the proper techniques for drawing blood and injecting medication as you practice these skills on teaching tools.

WE MOVED OUR PAWS FOR A GOOD CAUSE

Helen Woodward Animal Center's PUPPY LOVE 5K presented by Blue Buffalo

On Sunday, March 19, animal lovers of all ages enjoyed the beautiful San Diego sunshine and new course at the EmBARKadero for the 8th annual Puppy Love 5K! Over 700 people enjoyed a morning walk or run around the bay to help save animal lives and ensure the programs at Helen Woodward Animal Center continue to impact families in the community. Pawticipants and their furry friends wandered the BARKetplace and sampled various products, took home goodies, played games, and watched the costume contests, hosted by Raoul Martinez from Fox 5!

WE'D LIKE TO SAY THANK YOU TO OUR DEVOTED PARTICIPANTS, FUNDRAISERS, VOLUNTEERS, VENDORS, AND SPONSORS, whose contributions to events like the Puppy Love 5K are immeasurable. We are grateful for your dedication to orphan pets. We'd like to extend an extra special thank you to Raoul Martinez and Brandi Williams for kicking off the run and walk, as well as Boris Pardo and Eli Galbraith Knapp from the San Diego Sockers for leading a pre-walk warm up! Congratulations to the runners who placed in each category, as well as the costume contest winners!
